

White artists won all major awards one-third of the times

In the last 34 years, white artists took home all the major trophies 11 times. This only happened twice for non-white artists.

Data only includes Grammys nominations in the "Album of the Year", "Record of the Year", and "Best New Artist" categories from 1990 to 2023.